PRESS RELEASE

REN CI CHARITY SHOW 2007

27 February 2007, Singapore — Into its 5th year, MediaCorp TV Channel U and Ren Ci Hospital & Medicare Centre are proud to present the station's most highly anticipated annual charity event - Ren Ci Charity Show 2007, which will telecast 'live' on Channel U from the MediaCorp TV Theatre on 18 March 2007, Sunday at 7.30pm.

Last year, we witnessed the solidarity of Singaporeans towards our Ren Ci Charity Show 2006. Despite a plethora of challenges which cascaded the charity field and the absence of lucky draw prizes give-away, Singaporeans stood rock-firm, and together with the artistes, raised $7.39 million in the spirit of altruism for Ren Ci's needy sick patients.

The fundraising target for our 2007's Show remains as $5 million. Unlike previous years where the entire amount raised is used for the recurrent operating expenditure for patient care, we will channel $1.5 million in aid of the building fund of our new Ren Ci Hospital located on Irrawaddy Road this year. The new Hospital is slated to be ready in 2008. If the total funds raised were to exceed the $5 milllion target, the amount allocated to the new Ren Ci Hospital building fund will still be $1.5 million only. This year, our decision to share the funds raised from the Show with our building fund is due to the generous support from the esteemed Kwan Im Thong Hood Cho Temple which has donated a significant sum of $1.5 million to relieve our needy patients in their medical expenses. Our estimated expenditure for the Show is about $1.45 million.

This notable charity event is a Show with a difference…the uniqueness comes from the human factor it embodies. A gathering of countless compassionate hearts of local and overseas artistes, our supporters, volunteers, staff and members of the public joining hands for the same cause. We strongly believe in our fellow Singaporeans that they will not give up on the sick and suffering and will continue to shower them with loving kindness and lend a helping hand.

The Ren Ci spirit together with our guiding principles of compassion, determination, professionalism and good governance, shall steer us to scale greater charitable heights and reach out to an increasing number of needy sick.
