

CLINICAL PRECEPTORSHIP

(NNA Accredited)

A structured preceptorship is essential to help new hires quickly immerse into the organisation and bring out their fullest potential. This blended course aims to equip potential preceptors with the soft-skills and the techniques to mentor and coach new hires. The course consists of self-directed learning with lectures and discussions to enhance learnings.

COURSE DETAILS

Course dates under AIC Learning Network

*register at AIC CCLMS

14 & 15 Jan 2026	25 & 26 Jun 2026
26 & 27 Mar 2026	13 & 14 Jul 2026
18 & 19 May 2026	17 & 18 Sep 2026

Course Duration
9am - 5pm (2 days)

Course Fees
$480 (before GST)

Learning Objectives

- The role and responsibilities of a clinical preceptor
- Application of adult learning approach to clinical preceptorship
- Demonstrate the best practices in clinical supervision and assessment
- Construct constructive feedback using supportive communication
- Demonstrate professionalism as a role model in clinical practice
- Demonstrate conflict, stress and time management
- Evaluate clinical education and learning environment
- Reflect on the quality of one's preceptorship role as a holistic experience.

Who Should Attend

- Registered Nurses and Enrolled nurses with 2 years clinical experience

Note: Not eligible for NAs

Method

Self-directed learning, lectures, experiential learning, group discussions and reflections.

Key Trainer(s)

Kumutha Muthu, Assistant Nurse Clinician, Master of Arts in Professional Education (Training & Development), Bachelor in Science (Nursing), Bachelor in Information Technology (Data Communication)
Ms Kumutha has more than 10 years of experience as a Preceptor. She has attained full certification in WSQ Advanced Certificate in Learning and Performance (ACLP) and a Specialist Diploma in Clinical Education.

Marilyn Pearl D/O David, Assistant Nurse Clinician, Bachelor of Science (Honours) Nursing
Ms Marilyn has been a preceptor since 2009. She has attained full certification in WSQ Advanced Certificate in Learning and Performance (ACLP).